Strategy

The fund concentrates its assets in around 50 stocks. To be considered for inclusion in the fund, a company must possess the following attributes: (1) a clear competitive advantage with significant barriers to entry; (2) strong pricing power; (3) an experienced and proven management team; and (4) a healthy balance sheet. In addition, the manager seeks companies where there is a key to unlocking value, such as a new CEO, restructuring program, or change of ownership. Finally, valuation plays a key role in all investment decisions.
