

Steadyhand Income Fund

As of December 31, 2024

Objective

To provide a reasonably stable level of income and modest capital growth, while also preserving capital, through investing primarily in bonds, with some exposure to REITs and dividend-paying stocks.

Is This Fund Suitable for You?

You have a medium to long-term investment time horizon (i.e., over 3 years) and a low to moderate tolerance for risk. Consider this fund if you are seeking a diversified income product that will provide a combination of current income, modest capital growth and inflation protection. The fund is designed to serve as a core holding within a portfolio, if applicable.

Strategy

The majority of the fund's assets are held in bonds. The adviser closely monitors the attractiveness of corporate bonds in relation to government-issued bonds, and will concentrate the fixed income portion of the portfolio wherever the best relative value is found. A smaller portion of dividend-paying stocks and real estate investment trusts (REITs) are included in the portfolio to enhance the fund's yield and provide greater capital growth potential and protection from inflation.
